

Danya Roselle Handcrafted Jewelry

Since 1994 Danya Roselle has been creating one-of-a-kind designs which reflect the beauty of the world around us. With original designs which are evocative of natural elements, the handcrafted items are made from silver and other metals, often used in combination with a variety of well-selected stones, clays, beads, and foreign coins.

Danya is a member of the Columbia Art League, the Lawrence Art Guild, and a juried member of the Best of Missouri Hands. She sells her work retail at area art festivals and on consignment with regional galleries.

Currently she is represented by:

- ◆ Catiri's Art Oasis GalleryAmana, Iowa
- ◆ Columbia Art League.....Columbia, Missouri
- ◆ The Butterfly TattooColumbia, Missouri
- ◆ Phoenix gallery.....Lawrence, Kansas

Danya teaches jewelry-making workshops and classes at Access Arts in Columbia, Missouri and at Nichols Career Center in Jefferson City, Missouri. While schedules may vary, workshops are generally held at least every three months.

For workshop dates and times or for festival information take a look at her web-site at www.danyascraft.com. Custom orders and gallery inquiries are welcome.